

"To See or Not to See"

That is the Question.

There's no reason why you should not see if your glasses are right—the kind we sell.

YOUR EYES and that we are meeting with marked success is evidenced by the daily increase of our optical business.

We Hate
Bragging,

but to remind you that nothing is the way of correcting eye vision, or grinding every kind of lenses for every kind of eye vision is beyond our skill.

INFUX ON IN EARNEST

Australia's Big List of Passengers.

OLD AND NEW COMERS

Something About the More Prominent People Who Arrived Yesterday.

The Australia brought down one hundred and sixty-eight passengers on this trip. A number of them are kamaainas but most of them are strangers to Honolulu. Among them were:

Frank Baldwin and wife who have just returned from their wedding tour through the Eastern states. Mr. Bal-win goes back to Maui soon to resume his duties as assistant manager of Paia plantation.

A. A. Brown is an attorney of Cincinnati, Ohio, and is on his way to Australia. He will remain here for a couple of weeks.

Rev. C. H. Buck is a leading Methodist minister of New York City. He and his wife expect to remain over here for two weeks and will proceed to Australia on the Moana.

H. C. Carter, S. N. Castle, Henry Judd and William Rawlins have come home to spend their summer vacations.

Mr. Castle is from Harvard, Carter from St. John's, and the rest claim Yale as their alma mater.

Miss Charlotte Castle is a cousin of Robert Moore of the Risdon Iron Works, and will visit friends here.

T. Clive Davies returns from a trip to England where he accompanied his wife. Mr. Davies was in England only six days. It was just seventeen days ago that he went aboard the steamer at Southampton to return to Honolulu.

It was a quick journey.

Mrs. C. A. Davis and two children came to join Dr. Davis who is connected with Ewa plantation. Dr. Davis was formerly on the staff of the Board of Health physicians.

Mrs. Dillingham returns after a ten months' visit in the Eastern States, most of her time being spent in Boston and New York.

D. Dorward is a representative of the Risdon Iron Works and will proceed to Kihel to take charge of the construction of the underground chambers of the big pumps which are being installed by the Risdon Iron Works. He is accompanied by forty men who will carry on this work.

A. W. Dow comes to take a position with E. O. Hall & Co. He was for a number of years connected with a leading hardware house of San Francisco.

T. F. Dredge, son-in-law of ex-Minister of Foreign Affairs Alex. Young, comes on a brief visit.

A. J. Fayerweather and son, R. Fayerweather of Chicago, have come for an extended visit in the Islands. Mr. Fayerweather is a cousin of Mrs. Afong and Mrs. Montano.

Miss M. Egan will visit her sister Mrs.
L. W. Merrill for a few weeks.

Frederick Haviland and daughter, Miss A. Haviland, are relatives of Mr.
U. Thompson, principal of Kamehameha school. They will stay here for some time.

Miss Daisy Kerr, daughter of L. R.
Kerr, the Queen street merchant, has returned after taking a course in medicine.

Miss Azalea Keys and Mrs. McKenzie, en route for Australia, will remain over here for two weeks visiting the different islands.

Rev. Hamilton Lee of California, is an Episcopal minister who comes to take Rev. Alexander Mackintosh's pulpit during the latter's absence in England.

A. Lewis is an attorney who has for several years practiced in the California courts, making a specialty of the Federal courts. He was connected with the office of Chickering, Thomas & Gregory of San Francisco, and comes here to practice law with W. O. Smith.
He will devote himself more particularly to Federal practice.

Albert Raas, wife and two children, returned after a somewhat lengthy business trip to New York and the East in general. Mr. Raas made financial connections there which will be of value in regard to stock brokerage business.

J. J. Williams, wife and daughter, are back again after a combined business and pleasure trip spent on the Coast. He has been away about three months.

Mrs. George de la Vergne is here from Los Angeles where she resides with her husband and son. She will visit in Honolulu for several months with Mrs. C.
M. Cooke, her sister.

Prof. W. A. Setchell and Prof. Stadler are members of the faculty of the University of California. They will remain here during their summer vacation. One of the gentlemen is a botanist of note.

L. A. Thurston returned after a brief business trip to San Francisco.

Louis Schweitzer, the Nuuanu street merchant, is back again after a two months' absence.

B. F. Dillingham could not get away from San Francisco on the Australia.
He is in the big coast city and is perfecting business connections there in regard to supplying coal with which to fill several contracts which the Oahu Railway & Land Company have, and is also making arrangements for regular delivery of the same.

H. C. Walker of the Examiner staff will remain here for about two months.

The Hotel Decorated.

The Hawaiian Hotel had one of the most attractive decorative displays in the city yesterday. The lanais were heavily draped in hunting, every post and pillar being wound about with yards of the red, white and blue. A huge American flag enveloped the lower portion of the Waikiki lanai.

In the yard preparatory to the expected concert to be given last evening, strings of Japanese lanterns swung in the breeze, but late in the day suffered greatly from the rain.

A NEWSPAPER PLAY BY NEILL TONIGHT

A Bachelor's Romance, Miss Martha Morton's delightful comedy which the Neill Company will present this evening, was originally produced two seasons ago by that popular actor, Sol.
Smith Russell. The Neill Company has the exclusive right to present this famous success in America, paying the author for such privilege a good sum last week. In it Mr. James Neill will assume the role of David Holmes, the part originally played by Mr. Russell.
The atmosphere of "A Bachelor's Romance" is distinctly rural. The scenes are laid in New York and New England and the characters are thoroughly American. The literary flavor of A Bachelor's Romance is contributed by David Holmes the bachelor, the literary critic on the Review; Mr. Mulberry, an antique literary man, who is unable to turn his college education into money and bemoans the superficiality of the time in matters of literature; Archibald Savage, a modern and thoroughly up-to-date journalist and the antithesis of Mulberry, and Harold Reynolds, a reporter.

Whatever dash of wickedness and worldliness there is in the play is furnished by Gerald Holmes, a pleasure loving man of the world and by Helen Le Grande, who on the other hand is a fascinating widow, of the world of society. The first and third acts occur in David's study; the second in Helen Le Grande's fashionable Murray Hill home, and the fourth act in a typical New England home, where one catches at the peculiarly delightful atmosphere so characteristic of Sol. Smith Russell's plays.

Each stage setting will be true to the scene intended to portray and artistic to a degree as the Neill Company uses no local theatre scenery whatever in any play given by it.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE.

Many thousands have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. If afflicted with any throat or lung trouble, give it a trial, for it is certain to prove beneficial. Coughs that have resisted all other treatment for years have yielded to this remedy and perfect health has been restored. Cases that seemed hopeless, that the climate of famous health resorts failed to benefit have been permanently cured by its use. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.

The new battle ships will be called Virginia and Rhode Island; the armored cruisers, Maryland, Colorado and South Dakota; the protected cruisers, St. Louis, Milwaukee and Charleston.
